

MOVIE NIGHT AT THE BAR LIBRARY

WHEN: Thursday, March 11, 2010 at 5:30 P.M.

WHERE: The Clarence Mitchell, Jr. Courthouse (100 North Calvert Street)
In the Library's Horwitz Room (Room 506)

COST: $10.00 – All ticket holders will receive a soda as well as their choice of a candy or bag of popcorn.

FREE to all those admitted to the Bar in 2000, the year the film was released.

WHY "ERIN BROCKOVICH": Voted the ninth greatest legal movie by the ABA Journal in its August 2008 issue, the film, for which Julia Roberts received the Best Actress Academy Award, is the true story of a woman whose tireless investigation uncovered a scheme involving the massive dumping of highly toxic substances. The work of this real-life paralegal would lead to one of the most significant class action suits in United States legal history. The real life Erin Brockovich has a cameo in the film, playing Julia, a waitress.

TICKETS: May be purchased at the Library or through the mail. Checks should be made out to the Bar Library. Although tickets may be purchased at the door, for the purpose of ordering refreshments, please let us know if you think you might be attending. For more information telephone 410-727-0280 or e-mail us at jwbennett@barlib.org.
