

Terry Lenzner shaking hands with President Nixon

“THE INVESTIGATOR”

On Thursday, March 23, Mr. Jonathan Lenzner, Chief Executive Officer of Investigative Group International (IGI), a Washington risk advisory and corporate investigations firm, will be speaking at the Bar Library. Prior to taking the helm at IGI, Mr. Lenzner served in the Manhattan District Attorney’s Office and the Maryland United States Attorney’s Office, taking on everything from public corruption and financial fraud to sex trafficking. Mr. Lenzner will be here to discuss “The Investigator,” which sets forth the amazing exploits of Terry Lenzner, the founder of IGI and Jonathan’s father, as well as relating what it is like to head one of the preeminent investigative firms in the country.

In “The Investigator,” Terry Lenzner recounts his numerous high-profile cases. At the Justice Department in 1964, he investigated the murder of three civil rights workers—an infamous event that inspired the film Mississippi Burning. He led the national Legal Services Program for the poor, prosecuted organized crime in New York, defended peace activist Philip Berrigan, and represented CIA operative Sid Gottlieb. As a counsel to the Senate Watergate Committee, Lenzner investigated Nixon’s “dirty tricks” and followed the money trail that led to the Watergate burglary and cover-up. He was the first person to deliver a congressional subpoena to a sitting United States President. He uncovered cost overruns of the Alaska oil pipeline, helped identify the Unabomber, investigated the circumstances of Princess Diana’s death, and cleared Hugo Chavez of corruption charges. Lenzner also worked with President Clinton’s defense team during the impeachment hearings.

Books: Autographed copies of “The Investigator” will be available for purchase.

Place: Mitchell Courthouse – 100 North Calvert Street – Main Reading Room of the Bar Library (Room 618, Mitchell Courthouse).

Time: 5:00 p.m., Thursday, March 23, 2017, with a wine & cheese reception immediately following.

Invitees: All are invited to this Free Event.

R.S.V.P.: If you would like to attend telephone the Library at 410-727-0280 or reply by e-mail to jwbennett@barlib.org.